

Master of Laws (LLM)

Master of Science in Comparative Law, Economics and Finance (MSc CLEF)

Application Instructions 2012-2013

- 1) Please indicate if you are applying for the LLM or the MSc or both.
- 2) Official transcripts from all degree-granting academic institutions that you have attended. All transcripts must include an English translation and an explanation of the grading system used.
- 3) Two letters of recommendation (references) from faculty members or others who can assess your skills and character. The letters should be sent directly by the recommenders either in electronic or hard-copy format to the addresses above indicated. Alternatively, recommenders should return their letters to the applicants in a sealed envelope with their signature across the flap.
- 4) A motivational essay of 1500 words related to law and finance or discussing some aspect of global capitalism like those motivating the program and the faculty of the International University College of Turin (see About The IUC). The essay should also provide us with an example of your English-language writing skills.
- 5) A CV / RESUME
- 6) If English is not your native language nor the primary language of instruction, you should provide us with some type of evidence of your English language skills. TOEFL, IELTS or CPE are encouraged although not required. If you do not have an English language proficiency score please submit a short academic piece in English for consideration.
- 7) In case you cannot afford tuition fees, you should also provide us with a motivated statement requesting financial aid.
